

November/December 2012

Another Magpie has joined the series! Magpie Series #8: "Solitaire". This one will join the four larger pieces of the same size (36" x 36") at the Parker Adventist Hospital as part of their Healing Arts Program, in Parker, Colorado; in the 2nd floor waiting area in November/December.

It has to be seen to be appreciated!

News From Showcase Gallery in Greeley

The Director/Owner of Showcase Art Center, a dynamic and genuine person, my friend Colette Pitcher sends news: "We just painted the gallery and hall and are transforming it into winter wonderland this week. Sunday night I am being honored at "Arts Alive" a dinner on stage at the Civic Center that raises $ for scholarships in the arts. I also got news from Northglenn Art on Parade this week that our sculpture "Bee my Honey" won People's choice and will be purchased to be permanent in E.B. Raines Park off 120th and I-25."
