Art Students League Denver's 30x30 Exhibition

"In honor of our 30th anniversary, The Art Students League is hosting a holiday mini show!"

I spent many years at the ASLD and so I just had to submit a piece for this show!

I'm so honoured to hang in this show! I told Dave: "You know you're getting old when with only a couple of exceptions, the only names/photos that feel familiar were the Founders!

Abstract progress:

Here's where it was when you last saw it and more progress. You never know where it will go.

Thanks for your feedback! Painting by committee.

Over 350 Colorado Women Artists got together recently to have our picture taken!

What else is there to do on a warm October Sunday morning?

I was #1 (picture to prove it!) Dave and I went for a coffee while we waited for the others to arrive. (He's a real trooper.)

Then we hurried home to watch the golf.

Can you see me?

Some of the most outstanding pieces!

Crossover

Doug Kacena, "Retracted Loop," oil on canvas, painted over by Jill Soukup to become

"Horse with a Twist"

$8,500

Jill Soukup is represented by Saks Gallery

Doug Kacena's oil on canvas painted over by Jill Soukup! One of "our" artists. Just great Jill!

Ron Hicks figurative painting on the left painted over by Kacena and Ron's painting on Kacena's abstract on the right!
(remnants of figures can be seen in both)

You can see already how representational painter's appreciate the abstract and can break out and paint abstracts! Truly fascinating. That's our friend Patrice Dello Russo.

Mikael Olson's street scene painted over by Doug Kacena was really striking!

And you know I would be drawn to the colour in this painting! Doug Kacena's "Urban D1" painted over by Mikael Olson. Beautiful Mikael! (Another of "our" artists.)

So get on over and see ALL of these amazing works! Open over the holidays!
Open 11-6 Tuesday-Saturday
